NOTICE -- WARNING (SUMMARY JUDGMENT)

If defendants move for summary judgment, they are seeking to have your case dismissed. A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

5 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for summary
6 judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when there is no genuine issue 7 of material fact--that is, if there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result
8 of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter
9 of law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a motion for summary 10 judgment that is properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you cannot 11 simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in 12 declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as 13 provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and 14 documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not 15 submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered 16 against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be 17 no trial.

NOTICE -- WARNING (EXHAUSTION)

19 If defendants file an unenumerated motion to dismiss for failure to exhaust, they are 20 seeking to have your case dismissed. If the motion is granted it will end your case.

21 You have the right to present any evidence you may have which tends to show that 22 you did exhaust your administrative remedies. Such evidence may be in the form of 23 declarations (statements signed under penalty of perjury) or authenticated documents, that 24 is, documents accompanied by a declaration showing where they came from and why they 25 are authentic, or other sworn papers, such as answers to interrogatories or depositions.

26 If defendants file a motion to dismiss and it is granted, your case will be dismissed 27 and there will be no trial.
